FIGURE 1  MUCKELROY SEABED DISTRIBUTION (FROM HARPSTER 2009: 72) ............................................. 1
FIGURE 2  "LIFE CYCLE" OF SUBMERGED ARCHAEOLOGY (AUTHOR) .................................................. 2
FIGURE 3  DIVE SEARCH PATTERN (AUTHOR) ....................................................................................... 3
FIGURE 4  DIVE ROTA ............................................................................................................................... 3
FIGURE 5  WORD FREQUENCY GRAPH OF AUTHORITY ........................................................................ 4
FIGURE 6  WORD FREQUENCY GRAPH OF GEOGRAPHIC SCALE ......................................................... 4
FIGURE 7  WORD FREQUENCY GRAPH OF SOCIAL SCALE ..................................................................... 9
FIGURE 8  WORD FREQUENCY GRAPH OF COSTS & BENEFITS ............................................................. 9
FIGURE 9  WORD FREQUENCY GRAPH OF OPPOSITION WORDS ....................................................... 9
FIGURE 10  WORD FREQUENCY GRAPH OF IMPACT WORDS ............................................................... 10
FIGURE 11  WORD FREQUENCY GRAPH OF ARCHAEOLOGICAL WORDS ...................................... 10
FIGURE 12  MAP OF THE AMERICAN SOUTHWEST, SHOWING LAKE MEAD, SALTON SEA, GILA RIVER AND YUMA VALLEY (GOOGLE EARTH SATELLITE IMAGERY 2014) ...................... 11
FIGURE 13  MAP OF THE LAKE MEAD NATIONAL RECREATION AREA, CENTERED ON OVERTON ARM (USNPS 2012) .......................................................................................................... 12
FIGURE 14  MAP OF THE POST-IMPOUNDMENT SEDIMENT OF LAKE MEAD (TWICHELL ET AL 2003: 31) ............................................................................................................................................. 13
FIGURE 15  RE-EMERGED WALLS AND REMNANTS OF THE BLACKSMITH SHOP IN ST THOMAS (WYKSUP 2006: 18) .................................................................................................................... 14
FIGURE 16  RE-EMERGED WALLS AND REMNANTS OF THE GENTRY STORE AT ST THOMAS (NOTE SEDIMENT ACCUMULATION WITHIN THE STRUCTURE) (AUTHOR) ................................................. 14
FIGURE 17  MAP OF ST THOMAS, CIRCA 1933 (UNIVERSITY OF NEVADA LIBRARY "MERLE FREHNER COLLECTION" MSS 26) .................................................................................................................. 15
FIGURE 18  AERIAL PHOTO ST THOMAS, TAKEN IN JUNE 2003 (WYKSUP 2007: 76) ................. 16
FIGURE 19  EVIDENCE OF SMECTITES IN THE GROUND COMPOSITION; DEPTH OF CRACKS MEASURE 9CM (AUTHOR) .............................................................................................................. 16
FIGURE 20  GENTRY GARAGE; CRACKS IN THE WALLS WHERE TAMARISK HAS PENETRATED (WYKSUP 2007: 68) ................................................................................................................................. 17
FIGURE 21  TAMARISK OVERGROWTH ALMOST COMPLETELY OBSCURES THE VIEW OF ST THOMAS (AUTHOR) .................................................................................................................................................. 17
FIGURE 22  TAMARISK GROWING IN THE MIDDLE OF A BUILDING WITH LARGE AMOUNTS OBLITERATING THE VIEW (AUTHOR) ........................................................................................................ 18
FIGURE 23  GLASS, FARM EQUIPMENT AND OTHER SMALL ARTEFACTS ARE MOVED ABOUT BY TOURISTS AND PLACE IN CONSPICUOUS PLACES (AUTHOR) ................................................................. 18
FIGURE 24  FOUNDATION TO GENTRY STORE (WYKSUP 2006: 70) .................................................... 19
FIGURE 25  OIL PIT WITH DEPOSITS (WYKSUP 2006: 54) .................................................................. 20
FIGURE 26  SPALDING OF CONCRETE ON THE GENTRY HOUSE (WYKSUP 2006: 42) .............. 20
FIGURE 27  SPALDING AND DETERIORATION ON THE NORTH WALL OF THE GENTRY HOUSE, THE EFFECTS OF FREEZE-THAW (AUTHOR) ......................................................................................... 21
FIGURE 28  FOUNDATION OF LORD HUGH’S GARAGE AND GREASE PIT (AUTHOR) ....................... 21
FIGURE 29  REMAINDER OF HANNIC’S ICE CREAM PARLOR, SHOWING SIGNS OF SMALL-SCALE EROSION (AUTHOR) ...................................................................................................................... 22
FIGURE 30  BLACKSMITH SHOP (WYKSUP 2006: 42) ....................................................................... 22
FIGURE 31  JACOB BAVER’S HOME AND BLACKSMITH’S SHOP (AUTHOR) ...................................... 23
FIGURE 32  EVIDENCE OF BURNING FROM THE PREVIOUS YEAR’S TAMARISK BURN-OFF (AUTHOR) ...................................................................................................................................................... 23
FIGURE 33 Smectites in the soil have contracted further, causing segments of soil to rise up in concave formation (Author)........................................................................... 24
FIGURE 34 Toppled tree remains (Author)........................................................................... 24
FIGURE 35 Tree stumps cut pre-inundation (Author).............................................................. 25
FIGURE 36 Fence post obscured by the overgrowth of Tamarisk (Author)......................... 26
FIGURE 37 Trees lined the garden of one resident (Author).................................................. 27
FIGURE 38 Farm equipment (Author).................................................................................... 27
FIGURE 39 Geographic location of Upper Glendevon Reservoir (GoogleEarth Satellite 2006)............................................................................................ 28
FIGURE 40 Geographic locations of Camps, Fruid, Talla, Daer and Megget reservoirs (GoogleEarth Satellite 2013)............................................................... 24
FIGURE 41 Geolocated places of archaeological interest or work (RCAHMS 2012) .......... 29
FIGURE 42 Places of archaeological interest, Fruid and Talla (RCAHMS 2012)...................... 29
FIGURE 43 Megget Reservoir showing places of archaeological interest (RCAHMS 2012).............................................................................................................. 30
FIGURE 44 Camps Reservoir showing places of archaeological interest (RCAHMS 2012).............................................................................................................. 30
FIGURE 45 Upper Glendevon showing places of archaeological interest (RCAHMS 2012).............................................................................................................. 30
FIGURE 46 Plan of Stairs (Biggar Archaeology Group, Daer Interim Report Part 1-5: 11) ......................................................................................................................... 31
FIGURE 47 Underwater plan of Kirkhope Tower stairs (Author 2012)............................... 28
FIGURE 48 Plan of building foundation (Biggar Archaeology Group, Daer Interim Report Part 1-5: 10)......................................................................................... 33
FIGURE 49 Underwater plan of Kirkhope Tower foundations (Author 2012)..................... 34
FIGURE 50 Underwater photograph showing break of slope (Author 2012)........................ 34
FIGURE 51 Signs of erosion at 4 meters (Author)................................................................. 35
FIGURE 52 Break of slope, base (Author)................................................................................ 35
FIGURE 53 Break of slope, base (Author)................................................................................ 36
FIGURE 54 Unknown structure; potential sheepfold (Author).............................................. 36
FIGURE 55 Stones associated with the unknown structure; sheepfold (Author)................. 37
FIGURE 56 Stones associated with unknown structure; potential sheepfold (Author)........ 37
FIGURE 57 Stones associated with unknown structure; potential sheepfold (Author)........ 38
FIGURE 58 Peat between stones (Author)............................................................................. 38
FIGURE 59 Plan of mound and unknown structure (Author).............................................. 39
FIGURE 60 Cairn (Biggar Archaeology Group, Daer Interim Reports Part 1-5: 23).............. 40
FIGURE 61 Cairn (Biggar Archaeology Group, Daer Interim Reports Part 1-5: 23).............. 40
FIGURE 62 See DA Disk: Video footage (DA01, DA02, Volunteers)................................. 40
FIGURE 63 Eastern slope of the Fruid; shoreline fluctuation zone (Ward, Private collection)................................................................................................................. 41
FIGURE 64 See folded plan in back pocket, also appended on multimedia disc as FR5; FR01; FR01A: Underwater Plan (Author)......................................................... 42
FIGURE 65 Fruid Castle and earthworks at low water (Author) .............................................. 43
FIGURE 66 Fruid Castle and earthworks at low water (Author) .............................................. 43
FIGURE 67 Raised earthworks looking north/northeast (Author) ........................................... 44
FIGURE 68 Raised earthworks looking north, with collapsed area of field boundary wall in distance (Author) ................................................................. 44
FIGURE 69 Earthworks showing height and slope of banks (Author) ........................................ 45
FIGURE 70 Break in field boundary wall (Author) ................................................................. 45
FIGURE 71 Field boundary wall overlaying earthworks looking east (Author) ..................... 46
FIGURE 72 Field boundary looking north (Author) ............................................................. 46
FIGURE 73 Photograph of raised earthworks looking northeast (Author) ............................. 47
FIGURE 74 Signs of erosion on outer (lateral) sides of earthworks (Author) ....................... 47
FIGURE 75 Exposed earthworks looking northwest (Author) .............................................. 48
FIGURE 76 Signs of erosion on internal side of earthworks (Author) .................................... 48
FIGURE 77 Pebbles and small stones exposed between freshwater grasses (Author) ......... 49
FIGURE 78 Collapsed field boundary wall (Author) ........................................................... 49
FIGURE 79 Field boundary wall (Author) ............................................................... 50
FIGURE 80 Video compilation and photomosaic on multimedia discFR22 ......................... 50
FIGURE 81 Dressed-face stone (Ward, Biggar Museum 2003) ............................................... 51
FIGURE 82 Brick manufacturer’s stamp (Ward, Biggar Museum 2003) ............................ 51
FIGURE 83 Dressed-face stone underwater (Author) ......................................................... 52
FIGURE 84 Bricks and mortar in situ (Author) ................................................................. 52
FIGURE 85 Wooden planks (Author) ................................................................................ 53
FIGURE 86 Fruid cottage flooring (Author) ..................................................................... 53
FIGURE 87 Cramalt Towers (Maxwell-Irving 1981: 406) ..................................................... 54
FIGURE 88 South Tower entrance with mural chambers showing north tower (Maxwell-Irving 1981: Plate 35) ................................................................. 55
FIGURE 89 Cramalt, plan of the North Tower (Maxwell-Irving 1981: 409) ......................... 56
FIGURE 90 Sectional Elevation of South Tower (Maxwell-Irving 1981: 417) ................. 56
FIGURE 91 Sectional elevation of North tower (Maxwell-Irving 1981: 411) ................. 57
FIGURE 92 Underwater plan of south tower foundation (Author) ........................................ 57
FIGURE 93 Underwater plan of North tower foundation (Author) ........................................ 58
FIGURE 94 Underwater section drawing of South tower wall (Author) ............................. 58
FIGURE 95 Underwater section drawing of North tower wall (Author) ........................... 59
FIGURE 96 Dome-shaped cairn (Ward, Biggar Museum) .................................................... 59
FIGURE 97 Underwater plan of possible cairn (Author) .................................................... 60
FIGURE 98 Possible quern stone, in situ (Author) ............................................................. 60
FIGURE 99 Location of cistern, shed and iron water pipes (Google Earth Satellite Imagery 2007) ................................................................. 61
FIGURE 100 Photograph underwater (Author) ................................................................. 61
FIGURE 101 Underwater plan (Author) ............................................................... 62
FIGURE 102 Underwater plan (Author) ............................................................... 62
FIGURE 103 Iron water pipes (Ward 2004) ..................................................................... 63
FIGURE 104 Pipe underground (Author) ..................................................................... 63
FIGURE 105 Water pipe (Author) .................................................................................... 64
FIGURE 106 Section of cistern face (Author) ................................................................. 64
FIGURE 107 Plan of burnt mound (Author) ................................................................. 65
Figure 1 Muckelroy seadbed distribution (from Harpster 2009: 72)
Figure 2 "Life cycle" of submerged archaeology (author)
Figure 3 Dive search pattern (author)

Figure 4 Dive rota
Figure 5 Word frequency graph of authority

Figure 6 Word frequency graph of geographic scale
Figure 7 Word frequency graph of social scale

Figure 8 Word frequency graph of costs & benefits

Figure 9 Word frequency graph of opposition words
Figure 10 Word frequency graph of impact words

Figure 11 Word frequency graph of archaeological words
Figure 12 Map of the American Southwest, showing Lake Mead, Salton Sea, Gila River and Yuma Valley (GoogleEarth Satellite Imagery 2014)
Figure 13 Map of the Lake Mead National Recreation Area, centered on Overton Arm (USNPS 2012)
Figure 14 Map of the post-impoundment sediment of Lake Mead (Twichell et al 2003: 31)
Figure 15 Re-emerged walls and remnants of the blacksmith shop in St Thomas (Wyskup 2006: 18)

Figure 16 Re-emerged walls and remnants of the Gentry Store at St Thomas (note sediment accumulation within the structure) (author)
Figure 17 Map of St Thomas, circa 1933 (University of Nevada Library "Merle Frehner Collection" MSS 26)
Figure 18 Aerial photo St Thomas, taken in June 2003 (Wyskup 2007: 76)

Figure 19 Evidence of smectites in the ground composition; depth of cracks measure 9cm (author)
Figure 20 Gentry garage; cracks in the walls where Tamarisk has penetrated (Wyksup 2007: 68)

Figure 21 Tamarisk overgrowth almost completely obscures the view of St Thomas (author)
Figure 22 Tamarisk growing in the middle of a building with large amounts obscuring the view (author)

Figure 23 Glass, farm equipment and other small artefacts are moved about by tourists and placed in conspicuous places (author)

5A-13
Figure 45: Foundation to Gentry Store (Wyksup 2006: 70)
Figure 24 Foundation to Gentry Store (Wyksup 2006: 70)
Figure 25 Oil pit with deposits (Wyksup 2006: 54)

Figure 26 Spalding of concrete on the Gentry House (Wyksup 2006: 42)
Figure 27 Spalding and deterioration on the north wall of teh Gentry House, the effects of freeze-thaw (author)

Figure 28 Foundation of Lord Hugh’s Garage and Grease Pit (author)
Figure 29 Remainder of Hannig's Ice Cream Parlor, showing signs of small-scale erosion (author)

Figure 30 Blacksmith shop (Wyskup 2006: 42)
Figure 31 Jacob Baver’s home and Blacksmith’s shop (author)

Figure 32 Evidence of burning from the previous year’s Tamarisk burn-off (author)
Figure 33 Smectites in the soil have contracted further, causing segments of soil to rise up in concave formation (author)

Figure 34 Toppled tree remains (author)
Figure 35 Tree stumps cut pre-inundation (author)
Figure 36 Fence post obscured by the overgrowth of Tamarisk (author)
Figure 37 Trees lined the garden of one resident (author)

Figure 38 Farm equipment (author)
SIX RESERVOIRS, SCOTLAND

Figure 39 Geographic location of Upper Glendevon Reservoir (GoogleEarth Satellite 2006)

Figure 40 Geographic locations of Camps, Fruid, Talla, Daer and Megget reservoirs (GoogleEarth Satellite 2013)
Figure 41 Geolocated places of archaeological interest or work (RCAHMS 2012)

Figure 42 Places of archaeological interest, Fruid and Talla (RCAHMS 2012)
Figure 43 Megget reservoir showing places of archaeological interest (RCAHMS 2012)

Figure 44 Camps Reservoir showing places of archaeological interest (RCAHMS 2012)
Figure 45 Upper Glendevon showing places of archaeological interest (RCAHMS 2012)

Figure 46 Plan of Stairs (Biggar Archaeology Group, Daer Interim Report Part 1-5: 11)
Daer Reservoir: Kirkhope Tower
March, 2012
Detailed plan of stairs and adjacent levels

1 meter

Doorway
Stone stairs leading up (north)
Silty bottom
Upper Level

Figure 47 Underwater plan of Kirkhope Tower stairs (Author 2012)
Figure 48 Plan of building foundation (Biggar Archaeology Group, Daer Interim Report Part 1-5: 10)
Figure 49 Underwater plan of Kirkhope Tower foundations (Author 2012)

Figure 50 Underwater photograph showing break of slope (Author 2012)
Figure 51 Signs of erosion at 4 meters (Author)

Figure 52 Break of slope, base (Author)
Figure 53 Break of slope, base (Author)

Figure 54 Unknown structure; potential sheepfold (Author)
Figure 55 Stones associated with the unknown structure; sheepfold (Author)

Figure 56 Stones associated with unknown structure; potential sheepfold (Author)
Figure 57 Stones associated with unknown structure; potential sheepfold (Author)

Figure 58 Peat between stones (Author)
Figure 59 Plan of mound and unknown structure (Author)
Figure 60 Cairn (Biggar Archaeology Group, Daer Interim Reports Part 1-5: 23)

Figure 61 Cairn (Biggar Archaeology Group, Daer Interim Reports Part 1-5: 23)

Figure 62 see DA Disk: Video footage (DA01, DA02, Volunteers)
Figure 63 Eastern slope of the Fruid; shoreline fluctuation zone (Ward, private collection)
Figure 64 see folded plan in back pocket, also appended on multimedia disc as FR5; FR01; FR01A: Underwater Plan (Author)
Figure 67: Raised earthworks looking north/northeast (Author)

Figure 68: Raised earthworks looking north, with collapsed area of field boundary wall in distance (Author)
Figure 69 Earthworks showing height and slope of banks (Author)

Figure 70 Break in field boundary wall (Author)
Figure 71 Field boundary wall overlaying earthworks looking east (Author)

Figure 72 Field boundary looking north (Author)
Figure 73 Photograph of raised earthworks looking northeast (Author)

Figure 74 Signs of erosion on outer (lateral) sides of earthworks (Author)
Figure 75 Exposed earthworks looking northwest (Author)

Figure 76 Signs of erosion on internal side of earthworks (Author)
Figure 77 Pebbles and small stones exposed between freshwater grasses (Author)

Figure 78 Collapsed field boundary wall (Author)
Figure 79 Field boundary wall (Author)

Figure 80 Video compilation and photomosaic on multimedia discFR22
Figure 81 Dressed-face stone (Ward, Biggar Museum 2003)

Figure 82 Brick manufacturer’s stamp (Ward, Biggar Museum 2003)
Figure 83 Dressed-face stone underwater (Author)

Figure 84 Bricks and mortar in situ (Author)
Figure 85 Wooden planks (Author)

Figure 86 Fruid cottage flooring (Author)
Figure 87 Cramalt Towers (Maxwell-Irving 1981: 406)
Figure 88 South Tower entrance with mural chambers showing north tower (Maxwell-Irving 1981: Plate 35)
Figure 89 Cramalt, plan of the North Tower (Maxwell-Irving 1981: 409)

Figure 90 Sectional Elevation of South Tower (Maxwell-Irving 1981: 417)
Figure 91 Sectional elevation of North tower (Maxwell-Irving 1981: 411)

Figure 92 Underwater plan of south tower foundation (Author)
Figure 93 Underwater plan of North tower foundation (Author)

Figure 94 Underwater section drawing of South tower wall (Author)
Figure 95 Underwater section drawing of North tower wall (Author)

Figure 96 Dome-shaped cairn (Ward, Biggar Museum)
Figure 97 Underwater plan of possible cairn (Author)

Figure 98 Possible quern stone, in situ (Author)

ME02
Associated quern stone (possible)

20 centimeters

Smooth, concaved surface

Figure 98 Possible quern stone, in situ (Author)
Figure 99 Location of Cistern, shed and iron water pipes (Google Earth Satellite Imagery 2007)

Figure 100 Photograph underwater (Author)
Figure 101 Underwater plan (Author)

MR26
General underwater plan

Figure 102 Underwater plan (Author)

MR27
ME04
Iron water pipes (Ward, private collection lent on disc)
MR27 Iron pipe as it continues underground (author)
MR33
Section of cistern face
ME05:
Brick Cistern
Southwest face

C = Concrete facing
B = Brick

Figure 105 Water pipe (Author)

Figure 106 Section of cistern face (Author)
Figure 107 Plan of burnt mound (Author)

Figure 108 Burnt mound (Ward, private collection lent on disc)
Figure 109 Aerial photograph of mound at low water (RCAHMS Canmore 2003)
Figure 110 Underwater profile of mound (Author)
Figure 111 Elevation profiles (PKHT 2007)
2 meters

Figure 112 Underwater plan (Author)
Figure 113 The Temple Kiosk (Beato c. 1990)

Figure 114 Plan of square barrow (RCAHMS 2007)
Figure 115 Typologies: Depth and damage
Figure 117 Typologies: Damage and erosion
Figure 118 Typologies: Erosion and depth

Figure 119 Typologies: Floral growth
Figure 120 Typologies: Floral growth and damage

Figure 121 Typologies: Damage and site redistribution
Figure 122 Typologies: Depth and site redistribution

Figure 123 Philae partially submerged (George Lewis, Unnamed c. 1905)
Figure 124 Survey of Philae monuments (Lyons 1908: IV)

Figure 125 Philae submerged (George Lewis, unnamed c. 1905)
Figure 126 Survey of Western Colonnades (Lyons 1908: VII)
Figure 129 Bank erosion near Beni Suef (Sloff and El-Desouky 2006, Figure 11)
Figure 130: Modern island of Agilika and the original submerged Island of Philae. (Author’s manipulation on Google Earth Satelite Image 2013)
Figure 131 Map of Philae layered over Agilika (Author)