80,000 different books at Scotland's largest bookshop

49-50 GEORGE IV BRIDGE EDINBURGH EH1 1EC
TELEPHONE: 031-225 1681
Bière • Crêpes • Caffè
GRAND VINS • CROISSANTS • TABAC

NÉGOCIANT'S

DIFFERENT

Indo-Chinese food (it covers a wide area) • A massive range of beers including Belgian, Dutch, German, French and our famous fruit beers
Live music every night • An extensive list of shooters and cocktails
A range of specialty coffees • And a range of coffee, teas, pone au chocolat and croissants • A wine list of over sixty from three continents

Like we said
DIFFERENT

NB: Indo-Chinese food is from Malaysia, Thailand, Burma, Indonesia and India.

45/47 LOTHIAN STREET
EDINBURGH EH1 1HB
Tel: 031-225 6313

SHOE TRADITIONS

Students have always needed comfortable shoes. That's why the students at Oxford insisted on the toecap shoes, now the uniform of the business world. Cambridge have the plain-fronted house shoes and Edinburgh has more styles than we can count.

For ladies and gentlemen, at unbeatable prices, why not call in at Shoestring

151 Lothian Road

to see how inexpensive top quality shoes can be. Make your purchase then do everyone a favour and burn your old trainers. Better still — send them to Oxford.

Enjoy a new style of French Cuisine at:

La Chaumière

DÉGUSTATEUR FRANÇAIS

Richard, formerly of L'Etoile in No. 10, together with a wonderful French Chef from London, has opened a whole new concept in French Cuisine. Come to La Chaumière and enjoy a taste of France.
Open 6 days. Fully Licensed.

22a Nicolson Street Edinburgh
Telephone 031 667 0747

The leading specialist in the great outdoors.

Tent • Rucksacs • Rain suits • Anoraks
Walking boots • Camping stoves • Lanterns
All camping accessories • Everything for the Back packer, Walker and Traveller.

Show your NUS Card for 10% Discount

77 South Bridge, Edinburgh Tel: 031 225 3339.
But then again if you're God knows why.

Pub

Preservation Victoria own beer. Theme pub. The Rose Lives up to the title and makes its Gay, but not exclusively so. Howe Over Trendy new-style cafe bar serving milkshakes and beer. Cafe Coste Good beer and great ambience.

The Southern Bar South Clerk St; 667 2289 Local Pollock JCR bar. The Green Tree Cowgate; 225 1294 Watch out for stabbings in the beer garden. Bannerman's Cowgate; 556 3254 Good beer and great ambience. Cafe Coste Robertson's Close Trendy new-style cafe bar serving milkshakes and beer. City Cafe Over 21s only. Pseudo-trendy bar. The Laughing Duck Howe Street; 225 6711 Gay, but not exclusively so. Joe's Garage Lothian Road Theme pub. The Rose St Brewery Rose Street; 220 1227 Lives up to the title and makes its own beer. Preservation Hall Victoria Street; 226 3816

The Pear Tree West Nicolson St; 667 7796 Sneaky Pete's Cowgate; 225 1759 The Last Drop Tavern Grassmarket; 225 4851 Edinburgh Wine Bar Hanover Street; 220 1206 The Brisio Bar Lothian Street; 225 9715 Oddfellows Forth Road; 220 1816 The Sheep's Head Duddingston; 661 1020 Pelican 225 Cowgate; 225 5413 Negociants Lothian St (downstairs) 225 6313

Regular bands, imported beer menu. Greyfriars Bobby Candlemaker Row; 225 8300 Opening Hours: Sun 12.30-2.30; 6.30-11. Mon 11-2.30 pm. Tues-Thur & Sat 11-1 pm. Fri 11-2.00. Busy with the rugby boys, medics and dentists. The Southern Bar South Clerk St; 667 2289 Local Pollock JCR bar. The Green Tree Cowgate; 225 1294 Watch out for stabbings in the beer garden. Bannerman's Cowgate; 556 3254 Good beer and great ambience. Cafe Coste Robertson's Close Trendy new-style cafe bar serving milkshakes and beer. City Cafe Over 21s only. Pseudo-trendy bar. The Laughing Duck Howe Street; 225 6711 Gay, but not exclusively so. Joe's Garage Lothian Road Theme pub. The Rose St Brewery Rose Street; 220 1227 Lives up to the title and makes its own beer. Preservation Hall Victoria Street; 226 3816

Relax... Enjoy your lunch in the unique atmosphere that is THE BARONY An informal, noisy young atmosphere in a wooden floored traditional pub with real ales.

BAR LUNCHES SERVED MON-SAT (12-2.30) LIVE JAZZ 81/83 BROUGHTON STREET, EDINBURGH EH1 3RJ (031-557 0546)

A warm welcome awaits you at the ARGYLE BAR A fine selection of real ales OPEN ALL DAY A selection of home-cooked lunches served between 12 noon and 2 pm

You'll find us at 15 Argyle Place Edinburgh

SNEEKY PETER'S A den of licentious, drunken debauchery. Entrance requirements: must be inebriated enough not to notice the surroundings. Jukebox is reputedly one of the best in Edinburgh. Beware of pits composed entirely of stagnant beer-slops. Decidedly dubious, but open till late and always good for a seedy end to an evening.

THE LAST DROP When you have those "Pelican Blues" geographically near (but world's apart), down in the Grassmarket, nestles this cosy alcove, where "embarrassingly good-looking staff" attend to a clientele consisting mainly of students — with the odd broncobuster thrown in. The atmosphere is friendly and relaxed — unlike in days of yore when condemned criminals got headless in the vicinity — but if you'd prefer to get legless, or attend to a "trendies" of Edinburgh. Beware of pits composed entirely of stagnant beer-slops. Decidedly dubious, but open till late and always good for a seedy end to an evening.

THE BRISTO Typical rugger-bugger bar — very popular and these "fun" guys can be caught with their flies undone playing "soggy biscuit" of a Friday night. Just to prove true my suspicions about it being no "big thing" — but then again if you're into that sort of thing and you're prepared to wait in queues outside for this unique experience — go ahead.

THE PEAR TREE Bar and beer garden, the Pear Tree is a pretty much laid-back and relaxed sort of pub. Regulars vary from bearded-bikers to the pseudo-yah type. "soggy biscuit" of a Friday night. Just to prove true my suspicions about it being no "big thing" — but then again if you're into that sort of thing and you're prepared to wait in queues outside for this unique experience — go ahead.

EDINBURGH WINE BAR Just a bit pretentious, perhaps? Situated in the New Town, the Winebar tends to be of the pseudo-yah type. .........., cultured voices float downstairs expanding such profound subjects as the manifest proportions of Cynthia ODDFELLOWS Recently refurbished, Oddfellows has diminished in popularity since last year when it was regularly busy. Perhaps with its new image it will regain its former popularity. On two levels with a balcony, the actual pub and surroundings are attractive. Lunches served are reasonably priced and pretty good. Live bands featured on a regular basis.

SHEEP'S HEAD Recently voted the best city pub garden in Scotland, the Sheep's Head, although rather out of the way, is perfect for a relaxed drink in its pleasant country-type surroundings. Apparently next year it'll be even better, as one of the prizes for this title were new rosebushes. So keep your eyes peeled. Also boasts a superb skittle alley!

Marie-Clare Taylor

The Green Tree Old Edinburgh Tavern with Beer Garden

Famous for Beer, Folk Singing and Blue Grass

Pollock Ref Bar Pollock Refectory; 667 1971 Not so much a bar but a way of life.
EDINBURGH UNIVERSITY SPORTS UNION OFFICE
4 Pleasance
667 1011 ext. 4469/4417
PE DEPARTMENT/Sport
EDINBURGH UNIVERSITY SPORTS UNION OFFICE
48 Pleasance
667 1011 ext. 4465
PEFFERMILL PLAYING
FIELDS
667 7541

Edinburgh University offers you an unrivalled opportunity to become involved in sport at either a competitive or social level. As a matriculated student you are automatically entitled to join any of our clubs and have access to all the PE Department's facilities.

Angling, Archery, Athletics, Badminton, Basketball (Men), Basketball (Women), Boat, Boxing, Canoe, Cricket, Cycling, Fencing, Football, Gliding, Golf (Men), Golf (Women), Hare & Hounds, Hillwalking, Hockey (Men), Hockey (Women), Hot Air Balloon, Judo, Karate (Shotokan), Karate (Shukokai), Lacrosse, Motor, Mountaineering, Parasailing, Riding, Rugby, Rugby (Ladies), Sailing, Shinty, Ski, Squash, Sub Aqua, Swimming/Water Polo, Table Tennis, Tennis, Trampolene, Volleyball, Weightlifting, Windsurfing.

The Pollock Sports Centre at 46 Pleasance has a games hall, 10 squash courts, 2 gyms, rifle and archery ranges, weightroom, cricket nets, fencing combat salle, circuit room, fitness centre and Fitness Assessment and Sports Injuries Clinic while the Playing Fields at Peffermill, including Super Turf pitch, cater for football, hockey, rugby, shinty, lacrosse, cricket and golf. Firbush Point by Loch Tay is a superb base for sailing, canoeing, windsurfing, walking and mountaineering and our outdoor clubs run trips virtually every weekend of the year.

Intra Mural sport offers a more social approach, with leagues and competitions in 15 different sports including basketball, squash and volleyball. Don't miss out — for further details on any sport phone the Sports Union Office or drop in and see us Monday-Friday 9.30-4 pm.

OUTWITH THE UNIVERSITY
The University apart, Edinburgh is well endowed with sporting facilities both from a participating and spectating point of view. Murrayfield, Craiglockhart and Meadowbank all host international events while you can regularly watch top flight football, rugby, hockey and cricket.

Central Cycle Hire
13 LOCHRIN PLACE
TOLLROSS 228 6333

CAMERAS
Student Discount on all items
Repairs etc.
Secondhand Specialists
Cameras bought and sold

STUDENT
NEWS • REVIEWS • SPORT • ARTS • SCIENCE INTERNATIONAL • MUSIC • WHAT'S ON AND WHERE IT'S AT...

Every Thursday
25p

BICYCLES REPAIRED HIRED SOLD
BEST SELECTION OF MOUNTAIN BIKES IN EDINBURGH
SALE NOW ON
CENTRAL CYCLE HIRE
13 LOCHRIN PLACE
TOLLROSS 228 6333

FACTOTUM
IF YOU'RE LOOKING FOR A FLAT — YOU'VE JUST FOUND IT.
Factotum understands the special needs of students.
That's why registration is free. No longer do you have to put up with dingy properties on the wrong side of town. We understand you're human and treat you as such.
031-220 1838

FACTOTUM
We take care of everything.

Hang on for sport.

Local pools, eg Warrender - 55p.

Dry Ski Slope: Hillend (southern outskirt of Edinburgh)
£3.50/hour Mon-Fri
£4.50/hour Sat-Sun

Meadowbank:
Tennis, Badminton £4/hour
Squash, Table Tennis £2/hour
5-a-side Football £14/hour
Athletics track £1/hour

(both prices include hire of equipment).

Golf: Numerous courses in and around Edinburgh varying from £3.50 to £10 a round. (EUGC members entitled to substantial discounts on 8 courses.)

factotum

GOLF: Student Discount on all items
Repairs etc.
Secondhand Specialists
Cameras bought and sold

CAMERA STORE
35 East Crosscauseway
Tel: 031-668 3268
music

Shops

ARDS RECORDS 137 Great Junction St; 554 1628 Specialises for country & western, Scottish, Irish etc.

AVENALCHE 33 West Nicolson St; 669 2744 The place to go kids! Excellent selection at equally excellent prices; all hosted by the legendary garrulous Kevin. Hurray for Avalanche!

BACKBEAT RECORDS 21 Candlemaker Row; 226 2283 Good for rarities, bootlegs, also blues, jazz, dodgy '70s stuff etc.

CANONGATE FOLK MUSIC 49 Cameron Street; 557 3090 Excellent for folk music from anywhere in the world, African etc.

DOUGLAS RECORD CO. 53 East Crosscauseway; 667 4222 Pokey, but not bad. Mostly secondhand.

FOPP 42/44 Cockburn Street; 220 0133 Fairly mediocre really, and quite expensive. Worth visiting once in a while, though.

THE HMV SHOP 129 Princes Street; 226 4366 72/24 St James Centre; 556 1238 The big boys, and they can charge you as much as they like, so there.

HOT WAX RECORDS & VIDEOS 60 Dairy Road; 337 5225 Damn, I just can’t think of anything to say about this place. I’ve been there so often as well, erm...erm...

OLDE MUSEUM 3 West Maitland St; 228 3240...erm...erm...

OUR PRICE MUSIC Unit 9, Cameron Toll Centre. 69 Lady Road; 664 5722 Ah ha! As ever, “Our Price” is a cleverly coded term meaning “extorttaneous.”

RECORD SHARK 69 Clerk Street; 667 7144 Almost totally secondhand record shop which somehow seems to have been landed with every failed disco album from 1978-80. However, perseverance can often be rewarded if you have a spare afternoon and a thick of strong coffee.

RIPPING RECORDS 91 South Bridge; 226 7010 Practically every new indie record you could imagine at relentlessly astronomical prices. Good for hardcore, thrash, American.

VINYL VILLAINS 5 Elm Row; 558 1170 A bit out of the way, well, unless you live near it. I suppose Worth the trek though; good selection for indie, African etc. Many secondhand records. Good prices.

VIRGIN 131 Princes Street; 225 4583 Big boys again. Bring a cheque book or a bucket or something.

Venues

THE VENUE 17-23 Calton Road; 557 3073 Small, dark, dingy, sweaty, claustrophobic, unpleasant and we wouldn’t want it any other way. Conversation is impossible as the music they blare out in between bands is invariably twice as loud as the bands themselves. The major Edinburgh indie venue.

CALTON STUDIOS 24-26 Calton Road; 557 7066 Small and stuffy but with rather small but quite tasteful. Unlike the Venue, the bar is in a separate room.

THE PLAYHOUSE 22 Greenside Place; 557 2590 The biggie. All seated, which is a plus or minus point depending on your preference.

QUEEN’S HALL 8 Clerk Street; 668 3456 Box Office: 666 2019 Very good venue. Holds more people than you’d think and balconies afford an impressive view if you do so desire. Hosts bands too big for the Venue and too small for the Playhouse.

PRESERVATION HALL 9 Victoria Street; 226 3816 Fine if you are prepared to listen to persistent snooze ‘n’ blues band The Brothers every night. Nice pub, but not too many students.

NEGOCIANTS 45-47 Lothian Street; 225 6313 Small and stuffy but with...delusions of cosmopolitan grandeur. Sometimes a band may be found lurking in the corner purveying dodgy C&W or soul or something.

ODDFELOWS 14 Forrest Road; 220 1816 Mega student pub. attractively set out round bar in middle, crap bands behind. Usually hard to see, so you can pretend they’re not there.

USHER HALL Lothian Road Box Office: 228 1155 Another biggie.

POTTERROW 235 Cowgate; 225 5413 Pretentious, very studenty pub. Occasionally has local bands.

COASTERS 3 West Tollcross; 228 3252 Nightclub which used to host top indie bands regularly and intends to start doing so again. A bit glitzy, but not bad.

TEVIOT UNION Teviot Row; 667 2091 Noted for its legendary and mythical Big Band Policy. Usually this means Yes Yes Juliette in the agreeably dingy and intimate Park Room. Elusive chaps, big bands.

POTTERROW UNION 16 Potterrow; 668 2834 Attempts to champion new local bands, if the kitty allows it. I suppose the Rowan Lounge isn’t everyone’s favourite venue, but I rather like being on the same level as the band.

CHAMBERS STREET UNION 16 Chambers Street; 667 1011 Sometimes hosts naff rock bands in the megadisco upstairs. However, it’s much more fun downstairs listening to George the hipster doing solo acoustic versions of Motown classics.

STOP PRESS

News has filtered through the rock grapevine of a major new live venue in Edinburgh. Close readers of the local press may have spotted cryptic advertisements seemingly placed by top concert promoters Regular Music which heralds that “regular” Monday gig will soon become part of the Edinburgh scene. More news as we get it.
city guide

clubs

THE AMPHITHEATRE
31 Lothian Road
Disco mania at its worst. Superb entertainment though—a wide selection of white stilettos, chats from Kevs and Garys (plumber by day, superstud by night) and Sharon grating round her handbag. A real experience.

CINDERELLA'S ROCKERS
59 St. Stephen Street
Similar to the above, but situated in Stockbridge. All the Bananarama, Kylie and Sinitta records you never wanted to hear.

SPANISH HARLEM
Willie House, Cowgate
The latest in dance music; professional and lively. Nowhere else with the city's beautiful people start their weekend—but how much longer can this continue to hold their fickle attention?

DEVLIN ISLAND
369 Gallery, Cowgate
A purposed place for the coolest cars in town, featuring the city's best DJ's in the unusual location of the 369 Art Gallery.

KANGAROO CLUB
The Mission, Victoria Street
"Youthful" (ie underage) atmosphere with lots of juvenile casuals. A must.

THE DEEP DEVIL ISLAND
369 Gallery, Cowgate
A purposeful place for the coolest cats in town, featuring the city's best DJ's in the unusual location of the 369 Art Gallery.

THIS WAY UP
Pelican, Cowgate
A quirky cocktail of entertainment providing a welcome relief from the dance till you drop centre.

SUBWAY
Charlie Parkers
Adventurously alternative new club with live culture, fashion shows and non-mainstream sounds. Used to be Millionaires—the best gay club in town. Still sleazy though.

UNIVERSAL GROOVE
The Mission, Victoria Street
Latin, jazz, soul...there are better places to be on a Friday though.

POTTERROW
A stimulating alternative disco, but beware of Fridays, when Edinburgh's goths come out to play. Unless of course you too

THE DEEP DEVIL ISLAND
369 Gallery, Cowgate
A purposeful place for the coolest cats in town, featuring the city's best DJ's in the unusual location of the 369 Art Gallery.

Honestly, clubbing's never usually this much fun.

EDINBURGH

TICKETS AVAILABLE FROM:

TOCTA AGENTS AROUND SCOTLAND

TICKETS AVAILABLE FROM ALL TOCTA AGENTS AROUND SCOTLAND

TICKETS AVAILABLE FROM ALL TOCTA AGENTS AROUND SCOTLAND

Produced by Dance Factory

The House of Love

* EDINBURGH - Calton Studios
* GLASGOW - Barrowlands

Tickets available from all TOCTA agents around Scotland

The Mission, Victoria Street
What is it all about? The only problem is—will you stand the pace?

Avril Mair

Last year the nation's clubscene hit crisis point. Acid was in, and smiley culture went underground until press caught on and crucified it. Style and imagination vanished overnight from the fantasy kingdom and fashion shrunk all the way to the bank. What started out as a release from materialism turned upon itself, and ended up as the most blatant of consumerism—some trip.

Edinburgh however, escaped such crises commercialism and retained a little diversity. Perhaps the principal reason behind this was the already sized nature of the city's nightlife, but instead of following the rest of the country into style wasteland the fading doorways seems to have been revived. Avoiding the trend, bandwagoning, a wide array of new clubs have materialised and established clubs have been revitalised; guaranteed to provide pleasure for everyone.

Centres of nocturnal movement in the capital tend to fall into distinctive categories, characterised by the type of discos which attend. Firstly, there's the often intimidating trendsetterлож clubs, packed with self-styled "beautiful people" and subsets of the true night time darlings. Here designer outfits are paraded, fellow clubbers inspected and a pretentious time had by all. Numbered amongst these are Spanish Harlem and De Vil Bin.

Then there is the typically "student" club, where no aspirations towards image required. Shag is probably the best known of these, offering a predictable but always danceable mixture of music. Despite those Abba records and the fact that every second male is still learning to tie his shoes laces, it's always worth a visit.

Lastly, for those of an "alternative" inclination, there are various indie clubs worthy of mention. The best of these are held at the Venue—but unless you have a serious black-punk-and-hairspaying habit they're better avoided.

Edinburgh also has several gay clubs which merit more than just

Humphrey, student-run, student-orientated unpretentiousness.

SUBWAY
Charlie Parkers
Adventurously alternative new club with live culture, fashion shows and non-mainstream sounds. Used to be Millionaires—the best gay club in town. Still sleazy though.

UNIVERSAL GROOVE
The Mission, Victoria Street
Latin, jazz, soul...there are better places to be on a Friday though.

POTTERROW
A stimulating alternative disco, but beware of Fridays, when Edinburgh's goths come out to play. Unless of course you too

The Mission, Victoria Street
What is it all about? The only problem is—will you stand the pace?

Avril Mair

Last year the nation's clubscene hit crisis point. Acid was in, and smiley culture went underground until press caught on and crucified it. Style and imagination vanished overnight from the fantasy kingdom and fashion shrunk all the way to the bank. What started out as a release from materialism turned upon itself, and ended up as the most blatant of consumerism—some trip.

Edinburgh however, escaped such crises commercialism and retained a little diversity. Perhaps the principal reason behind this was the already sized nature of the city's nightlife, but instead of following the rest of the country into style wasteland the fading doorways seems to have been revived. Avoiding the trend, bandwagoning, a wide array of new clubs have materialised and established clubs have been revitalised; guaranteed to provide pleasure for everyone.

Centres of nocturnal movement in the capital tend to fall into distinctive categories, characterised by the type of discos which attend. Firstly, there's the often intimidating trendsetterлож clubs, packed with self-styled "beautiful people" and subsets of the true night time darlings. Here designer outfits are paraded, fellow clubbers inspected and a pretentious time had by all. Numbered amongst these are Spanish Harlem and De Vil Bin.

Then there is the typically "student" club, where no aspirations towards image required. Shag is probably the best known of these, offering a predictable but always danceable mixture of music. Despite those Abba records and the fact that every second male is still learning to tie his shoes laces, it's always worth a visit.

Lastly, for those of an "alternative" inclination, there are various indie clubs worthy of mention. The best of these are held at the Venue—but unless you have a serious black-punk-and-hairspaying habit they're better avoided.

Edinburgh also has several gay clubs which merit more than just

Humphrey, student-run, student-orientated unpretentiousness.

SUBWAY
Charlie Parkers
Adventurously alternative new club with live culture, fashion shows and non-mainstream sounds. Used to be Millionaires—the best gay club in town. Still sleazy though.

UNIVERSAL GROOVE
The Mission, Victoria Street
Latin, jazz, soul...there are better places to be on a Friday though.

POTTERROW
A stimulating alternative disco, but beware of Fridays, when Edinburgh's goths come out to play. Unless of course you too

The Mission, Victoria Street
What is it all about? The only problem is—will you stand the pace?

Avril Mair

Last year the nation's clubscene hit crisis point. Acid was in, and smiley culture went underground until press caught on and crucified it. Style and imagination vanished overnight from the fantasy kingdom and fashion shrunk all the way to the bank. What started out as a release from materialism turned upon itself, and ended up as the most blatant of consumerism—some trip.

Edinburgh however, escaped such crises commercialism and retained a little diversity. Perhaps the principal reason behind this was the already sized nature of the city's nightlife, but instead of following the rest of the country into style wasteland the fading doorways seems to have been revived. Avoiding the trend, bandwagoning, a wide array of new clubs have materialised and established clubs have been revitalised; guaranteed to provide pleasure for everyone.

Centres of nocturnal movement in the capital tend to fall into distinctive categories, characterised by the type of discos which attend. Firstly, there's the often intimidating trendsetterлож clubs, packed with self-styled "beautiful people" and subsets of the true night time darlings. Here designer outfits are paraded, fellow clubbers inspected and a pretentious time had by all. Numbered amongst these are Spanish Harlem and De Vil Bin.

Then there is the typically "student" club, where no aspirations towards image required. Shag is probably the best known of these, offering a predictable but always danceable mixture of music. Despite those Abba records and the fact that every second male is still learning to tie his shoes laces, it's always worth a visit.

Lastly, for those of an "alternative" inclination, there are various indie clubs worthy of mention. The best of these are held at the Venue—but unless you have a serious black-punk-and-hairspaying habit they're better avoided.

Edinburgh also has several gay clubs which merit more than just

Humphrey, student-run, student-orientated unpretentiousness.

SUBWAY
Charlie Parkers
Adventurously alternative new club with live culture, fashion shows and non-mainstream sounds. Used to be Millionaires—the best gay club in town. Still sleazy though.

UNIVERSAL GROOVE
The Mission, Victoria Street
Latin, jazz, soul...there are better places to be on a Friday though.

POTTERROW
A stimulating alternative disco, but beware of Fridays, when Edinburgh's goths come out to play. Unless of course you too

The Mission, Victoria Street
What is it all about? The only problem is—will you stand the pace?

Avril Mair

Last year the nation's clubscene hit crisis point. Acid was in, and smiley culture went underground until press caught on and crucified it. Style and imagination vanished overnight from the fantasy kingdom and fashion shrunk all the way to the bank. What started out as a release from materialism turned upon itself, and ended up as the most blatant of consumerism—some trip.

Edinburgh however, escaped such crises commercialism and retained a little diversity. Perhaps the principal reason behind this was the already sized nature of the city's nightlife, but instead of following the rest of the country into style wasteland the fading doorways seems to have been revived. Avoiding the trend, bandwagoning, a wide array of new clubs have materialised and established clubs have been revitalised; guaranteed to provide pleasure for everyone.

Centres of nocturnal movement in the capital tend to fall into distinctive categories, characterised by the type of discos which attend. Firstly, there's the often intimidating trendsetterлож clubs, packed with self-styled "beautiful people" and subsets of the true night time darlings. Here designer outfits are paraded, fellow clubbers inspected and a pretentious time had by all. Numbered amongst these are Spanish Harlem and De Vil Bin.

Then there is the typically "student" club, where no aspirations towards image required. Shag is probably the best known of these, offering a predictable but always danceable mixture of music. Despite those Abba records and the fact that every second male is still learning to tie his shoes laces, it's always worth a visit.

Lastly, for those of an "alternative" inclination, there are various indie clubs worthy of mention. The best of these are held at the Venue—but unless you have a serious black-punk-and-hairspaying habit they're better avoided.

Edinburgh also has several gay clubs which merit more than just

Humphrey, student-run, student-orientated unpretentiousness.
1 Avalanche
   Records
2 Le Sept
3 Shoestring

4 La Chaumiere
5 Talbot Rice
   Gallery
6 Central Cycle
   Hire
Edinburgh Street Plan

7 The Green Tree
8 The Barony
9 Pastaficio
10 The Argyle
11 Camping Outdoor Centre
12 Negociants
13 Thins
14 L'Odeon
15 The Camera Store
16 Shalimar
17 National Gallery Of Scotland
18 Fruitmarket Gallery
19 Stills Gallery
20 Mammars
21 Oasis
22 Cafe Noir
BANK OF SCOTLAND
CITY LIGHTS
STUDENT DISCOUNT
BOOKLET

Available when your grant is paid in to your account

We're sure that you'll enjoy using the vouchers in this booklet to take advantage of 25% OFF and HALF PRICE OFFERS at a huge variety of restaurants, bistros, bars and nightclubs throughout Scotland's university towns and cities, plus pizza and pasta restaurants throughout the country. You'll also find a voucher giving you £3 off a Eurotrain fare to any European destination, and a photo processing offer to use up to 4 times between now and next Spring.

ENJOY THE EXPERIENCE OF 'CITY LIGHTS' WITH THE COMPLIMENTS OF BANK OF SCOTLAND

SIGHTS DEGNETT
CITY LIGHTS

BANK OF SCOTLAND
A FRIEND FOR LIFE

ROZIE'S
Candlemaker Row
Hats, hats, hats — everything for the well-dressed head. Not just for that wedding either.
BUZZINI
Rose Street
Everything for the well-dressed casual. Frequented by the city's small and natty brigade. Yuk.
HASTON
St Mary's Street
Unusual and exceptionally chic leathers by a talented and creative local designer.
CHI-CHI
St Mary's Street
Aesthetic opulence abounds. Dress for excess in these almost affordable one-offs.
CAPLAN
St Mary's Street
Monochrome minimalism at its best. Small and select range of "ready worn" (not secondhand) garments. Worth checking up on.
MAGGIE'S
St Stephen's Street
"Not dictated to by external fashions" but buy an awareness of an inner need to express yourself through the clothes one wears." Nice line in advertising blurb, clothes are okay too.
CORNICHE
Jeffrey Street
By far the trendiest shop in town — Gaultier, Hamnett; you'll find "em all here. High fashion with prices to match.
CRUISE
Grassmarket
Another forerunner in the style stakes, stocking the likes of Red or Dead and Cornejo. Painfully trendy.
STUDENT DISCOUNT

Waverley Market
Everyone's favourite chainstore. Interesting mish-mash of old and new.
COCKBURN ST MARKET
If you drift around draped in swathes of the deepest black then you might even like this shop. Unless of a gothic inclination — prostrate.
GROUND CONTROL
Cockburn Street
Yet another in the black-lace-and-variety of store. Lovely.
FRENCH CONNECTION
Hanover Street
Italian designer-wear at factory prices. What else?
ITALIAN FACTORY
South Bridge
Italian designer-wear at factory prices. What else?
WHAT EVERYONE WANTS
South Bridge
Abandon hope all ye who enter here. Cheap and particularly nasty.

Whilst not so outrageously up-to-the-minute as its west coast contemporary, Edinburgh remains to the forefront of fashion, with shops reflecting the inhabitants strong sense of what is chic. The one thing that the dedicated follower of fashion will first notice about Edinburgh is the de tailed lack of one main shopping area. Princes Street, with its predictable array of chain store fashions, does not really measure up to the requirements of most students with the slightest claims to credibility in the dress stakes, and so one is forced to seek style elsewhere.

The two most important high street alternatives in this city are the secondhand store, and the small boutique.

The former tend to the mainstay of the budget-conscious dresser, but unlike in some towns, Edinburgh's contain more than just well-worn cost-offs. St.
Mary's Street and St. Stephen's Street are veritable wealths of elegant antique garments, and prices are far lower than for many mass-produced items.

Small boutiques on the other hand, tend to be much less affordable, with big name designers selling equally big prices. However the thrill of wearing that excessively expensive one-off is almost worth the pain of eternal overdraft. Almost.

But whatever you like to wear,Edinburgh undoubtedly has something for you. Whether its Gaultier, Galliano or grandad's old shirt there will be a shop which sells it. All you have to do is hunt.

Avril Maire
AVALANCHE

We don’t claim to be the biggest record shop in town (Virgin/H&N).

We’re not the biggest secondhand record shop in town (Vinyl/Villains).

We don’t sell the most concert tickets (Ripping Records).

We don’t even have the silliest name (FOPP).

What we do have is a large selection of new and secondhand independent, metal and chart records, tapes and CDs at unbeatable prices in extremely strong carrier bags.

_Avalanche for the best carrier bags!

33 WEST NICOLSON ST
28 LADY LAWSON ST_
galleries

SCOTTISH NATIONAL PORTRAIT GALLERY
Queen Street
556 8921
Mon-Sat 10 am-5 pm; Sun 2-5 pm
More of a place for those interested in historically important Scottish figures or the lovers of art. An exhibition of Frederick Bremmers photographs, A Vision of India runs from Oct 20 until Jun 31.

SCOTTISH NATIONAL GALLERY OF MODERN ART
Belford Road
556 8921
Mon-Sat 10 am-5 pm; Sun 2-5 pm
A fine collection of 20th century art housed in a spacious Victorian building in its own grounds. The SNGMA is well organised and perhaps Edinburgh’s most enjoyable gallery. A rather good cafe is situated downstairs, which over-spills onto a patio during summer.

STILLS GALLERY
110 High Street
557 1140
Wed-Sat 11 am-5 pm; Sun 2-6 pm
As the name suggests Stills is devoted entirely to photography. An exhibition entitled Bodies of Evidence which examines the effect of the AIDS virus on society runs until Oct 14. From Oct 21 is the first part of a two part exhibition Picturing Women.

TALBOT RICE ART CENTRE
Old College; University of Edinburgh
667 1011 ext 4306
Mon-Sat 10 am-5 pm
The current exhibition (until Nov 1) is entitled Treasures of the University Library though no doubt something livelier will come up later...

NATIONAL GALLERY OF SCOTLAND
The Mound; 556 8921
Mon-Sat 10 am-5 pm; Sun 2-5 pm
Quite simply one of the finest art collections in the country. Housing works from the Renaissance through to the end of the 19th century. Countless masters are represented, though especially fine works of Titian and Poussin are contained, along with a collection of Turner watercolours (exhibited in January only). A small exhibition of the work of El Greco runs until 15 Oct, though the permanent exhibition is considerably more impressive.

ROYAL SCOTTISH ACADEMY
The Mound; 225 6671
Mon-Sat 10 am-6 pm; Sun 2-6 pm
Site of major exhibitions, and the only place where you are likely to have to pay. Currently showing (until Oct 29) is the excellent McTaggart retrospective, which at £1.25 (with a student card) is a positive bargain.

THE SCOTTISH GALLERY
46 George Street; 225 2655
Mon-Fri 10 am-6 pm; Sat 10 am-1 pm
A classy and enjoyable private gallery worth a visit, especially if you fancy spending large sums of money. Artists whose work will be on display during October include William Littlejohn and Phillip Reeves.

BOOK FAIRIE
8 Victoria Street
225 9237
Mon-Sat 10 am-5 pm
Reasonably organised but fairly average. A good selection in almost every subject area.

BOOKSELLERS
19 George IV Bridge
225 9237
A large new shop in the current plush trend. Perhaps too glitzy for comfort but a decent stock all the same.

OLD GRINDLES BOOKSHOP
1 Spittal Street
556 4591
Good antiquarian stock.
theatres

NETHERBOW ARTS CENTRE
45 High Street; 556 9579
Box Office Mon-Sat 10 am-5 pm; Sun 10 am-4 pm
Concessions available on tickets which are usually between £2-£4. If you're down in Stockbridge, the wholefood café merits a visit itself.

THREE FORCASTS
10 Hamilton Place; 226 5425
Concessions available on tickets which are usually between £2-£4. If you're down in Stockbridge, the wholefood café merits a visit itself.

TRAVESE THEATRE
112 West Bow, Grassmarket; 226 2673
Tickets also available from Ticket Centre, Market Street.

NETHERBOW ARTS
Cafe
Productions
A cosy theatre which combines cafe, exhibition space and a small patio garden where you can take your pre-show drinks. Productions are provided by small touring companies, with an emphasis on new Scottish work. Also look out for the music festivals which have previously included mime, puppets and dance. As well as being home of the Old Town Theatre Company, it hosts regular lunchtime performances by Oxygen House Theatre Company. Tickets are fairly cheap, around £2-£3 with student cards.

THEATRE WORKSHOP
34 Hamilton Place; 226 5425
Tickets also available from Ticket Centre, Market Street.

Edinburgh University's Bedlam Theatre.

Women's Cabaret Duo present "Withering Looks". Tue 11-21
"Hebe", Also Wed 11, Thur 12, John Clifford/ Liza Lochhead double bill, "Professional Pretenders". 17-22 Oct, Ad Hoc Theatre Co, "These Childish Things" by Raymond Couce, Thur 26-Sun 29, The Practice present "The Origin of Table Manners". Mon 31, Tue 31, Traverse Theatre Co present "Great Expectations".

BEDLAM THEATRE
Forrest Road; 225 9893
Concessions available on tickets which are usually between £2-£4. If you're down in Stockbridge, the wholefood café merits a visit itself.

Cafe
This converted church is the home of Edinburgh University Theatre Company, producing a range of shows including student-written work. Weekly Wednesday lunchtime plays plus bigger productions throughout the term. A good opportunity to get involved in all aspects of theatre and soak up some mid-week culture (with free lunch). Tickets are cheap, from £1-£2 depending on membership.

BRUNTON THEATRE
Musselburgh; 665 2240
Forthcoming attractions include "Whisky Galore". Oct 4-21

Concessions available so it's worth the bus journey there.

GILDED BALLOON THEATRE
233 Cowgate; 225 4463
Bar
An intimate theatre studio above the 369 Gallery providing erratic cabaret nights and alternative comics. Check the blackboard outside. Last year's attractions included Gerry Sadowitz and Liz Lochhead. Ticket prices vary but concessions are usually available.

KING'S THEATRE
2 Leven Street; 229 1201
Box Office Mon-Sat 10 am-8 pm
Bar
Elegant and luxurious, the King's is a theatre of epic proportions. Those who you can find yourself a long way from the stage. It plays host to major touring productions, including companies like Scottish Opera, Scottish Ballet and the occasional Royal Shakespeare Company performance. Although many of the performances are aimed at middle-aged theatregoers, it's worth a visit to revel in the splendour. The yearly pantomime boasts a 'star-studded' cast, and concessions are available for most shows depending on ticket demand. Prices are a bit steep, ranging from £4-£12, but Saturday matinées are usually cheaper.

- "Scotland the What?", until Sat 14 Oct, "South Pacific", 17-24 Oct

ROYAL LYCEUM
Grindlay Street; 229 9697
Bar, Restaurant/Cafe
Box Office Mon-Sat 10 am-6 pm; Sun 10 am-8 pm on performance evenings.
Tickets: £2-£10.
Concession card, called "Theatresaver", costs £1 and gives you £1 off full price tickets for two people. Season tickets also available.

The Royal Lyceum.
food

JOLLY PIZZERIA
9 Elm Row; 556 1588
Open: Mon-Sat 12 noon-2.30 pm;  Mon-Thurs 5-11 pm; Fri & Sat 5-11.30 pm.
Average price: £2.60 (pizza)–£3.10 (pasta dishes).

NEXT CAFE
319 Price Street; 226 2948
Open: Mon-Sat 9.30 am-5.30 pm and Thurs 9.30 am-6.30 pm.

IKE'S PIZZA EMPORIUM
156-162 Rose Street; 225 1010
Open: Mon-Fri 12-2 pm; 5-9.30 latr, Sat 12-2 latr, Sun 5.30-9.30 late.
Average price: approx £4 for largest (16-inch) pizza. Excellent

COCONUT GROVE
3 Lochin Terrance; 229 1569
Open: Mon-Fri 5.30-10.30 pm; Sat & Sun 5.30-11 pm.
Price: from £4.95. Restaurants

BAR NAPOLI
Italian & European Dishes; 75 Hanover St; 225 2100
Open: Every day 12 noon-12 midnight.

ODDFELLOWS
56 Fountainbridge; 225 5128
Open: Mon-Sat 11 am-11 pm.
Average price: £7.50 per head.

HENDERSON'S
119 Prices Street; 226 2911
Open: Sun 5.30-11 pm.
Average price: £6.30.

PIZZERIA ROMANA
10 Forrest Road; 225 5128
Open: Mon Sat till 1 am; Sun 5 pm–11 pm.
Average price: £5.16 for main course per head.

THE POSTING SHED
69 Bruntsfield Place; 229 1393
Open: 7 days 7.30 am-10.15 pm.
For coffees, lunches and dinners.

PASTIFICIO
7 North Bridge; 556 6467
Open: Mon-Sun 12 am–12 pm.
New prison. Lunchtime Special (12-6 pm); pasta dish, drink,

MAMMA'S
12-14 Newington Road; 225 6464
Open: Thurs 11 am-1 am, Fri-Sat 11 am-11 pm.
10% Discount for students.

BED AND BREAKFAST- Terms from £12.00

STUDENTS' OWN GUEST HOUSE SHALIMAR
20 Newington Road, Edinburgh EH9 1QS

FAT SAM'S PIZZA PIE LTD
56 Fountainbridge

AMERICAN PIZZA COMPANY
30 Grassmarket (Tel 225 6464) WELCOMES FRESHERS 1989

Welcome to Edinburgh and welcome to Mamma's, home of the best fresh baked pizza in Britain. Join us for fun, frivolity, raucous rock 'n roll, good times with good friends, sharing great food at fair prices.

For FRESHERS' WEEK 1989 we are offering a special introduction of £1.00 OFF any pizza you order. So join us. Love ya, Mamma!

FRESHER'S SPECIAL

£1.00 OFF YER PIZZA

OFFER EXPIRES OCT 22, 1989

---

KINGSWELL'S)
319 George Street; 225 6500
Open: Sun 5.30-11 pm.
Average price: approx £4 for a 16-inch pizza.

COCONUT GROVE- Ignore the scaffolding.

Edinburgh holds a strong reputation for all types of entertainment and food is no exception. Scotland's capital city plays host to a wide variety of places in which to eat. When either living in or simply visiting Edinburgh, eating out will never pose a problem.

Students constantly checking their bank accounts will find numerous cafes and restaurants offering excellent food at reasonable prices. Pollock Halls Refectory does not have to be the form of gateau. And then why not finish off with a delicious Mexican dishes, and type of life. After the rowdy nights out on the town, perhaps this is a spot where parents may be entertained. Certainly, offering a varied menu from hot vegetarian dishes to simple salad platters, it will suit most appetites.

Steaks £2.60
Lunches only. Very

Students constantly checking their bank accounts will find numerous cafes and restaurants offering excellent food at reasonable prices. Pollock Halls Refectory does not have to be the form of gateau. And then why not finish off with a delicious Mexican dishes, and type of life. After the rowdy nights out on the town, perhaps this is a spot where parents may be entertained. Certainly, offering a varied menu from hot vegetarian dishes to simple salad platters, it will suit most appetites.

Served, you choose, make it fun. Wherever

Lunches only. Very

Students constantly checking their bank accounts will find numerous cafes and restaurants offering excellent food at reasonable prices. Pollock Halls Refectory does not have to be the form of gateau. And then why not finish off with a delicious Mexican dishes, and type of life. After the rowdy nights out on the town, perhaps this is a spot where parents may be entertained. Certainly, offering a varied menu from hot vegetarian dishes to simple salad platters, it will suit most appetites.
SEEDS CO-OP
53 West Nicolson
Wholefood Vegetarian
Open: Mon-Sat 10 am-3 pm; 6-11 pm.
Average price: £3.49.
Take your own wine — no corkage charge.

THE IMPERIAL CHINESE RESTAURANT
105/109 Lothian Road;
226 9529/225 7767
Open: Every day 12 noon-11 pm.
Average price: £10-£15.

MAXIE'S BISTRO
30 Sandport St, Leith, 554 2821
Open: Mon-Sat 6.30-10.30pm.
Average price: £10-£11.

THE WITCHERY
352 Castlehill, Royal Mile
225 5613
Open: 7 days a week 12 noon-11 pm.
Average price: £15-£20 per head for four courses.

PIERRE VICTOIRE
10 Victoria Street; 225 1721
Open: Mon-Sat 12 noon-2.30 pm; 6 pm-11 pm.
Sundays during Christmas, the Edinburgh Festival and other busy periods.
Average price: for starters from £2.50-£3.50; for main courses from £5.50-£8.

LE BON BISTRO
21 Arbyle Place; 229 4404
Open: Every day 5.30-11 pm.
Average price: under £4 for a main course.

VIVA MEXICO
10 Anchor Close; 226 5145
Open: Mon-Sat 12-2.30 pm; 6.30-10.30 pm (last orders). Sun 6-10 pm.
Average price: £10-£15.

THE LACHANA
3 Bristo Place; 226 4617
Open: Mon-Fri 12 noon-2.30 pm; Mon-thurs 5 pm-7 pm.
Price: for 4-course meal £3.60 for 3-course meal £3.25.
With various other a la carte menus. Vegetarian.

SHANAZ TANDOORI
129a Rose St Precinct;
223 2652/225 3649
Open: Mon-Sat 12 noon-2.30 pm; 5.30 pm-12 midnight. Sun 5.30 pm-12 midnight.

LE SEPT
7 Old Fishmarket Close
225 3428
Open: Brasserie — all day Fri-Sat. Restaurant — Tues-Sat 7-10 pm.

LA CHAUMIERE
22a Nicholson Street; 667 0747
Open: Tues-Sun 12-2 pm; 6 pm-late. Closed Mondays.
For traditional French cuisine.
Average price from £4.75 (lunch); main course £5.50, £6.95 (dinner); average £8-9; vegetarian meals £4-4.5.
Mayhem on Meadow Walk...

Princes St. . . for a relaxing days shopping.

Teviot Row and McEwan’s Hall, pizzas and degrees while you wait.

Cowgate... meeting point of the drunk and depraved.