Showcasing and Sharing Oxford Brookes Research

Managing and Sharing Teaching Resources
How is our research shared?

- Conferences: ISL, CICIN
- Brookes eJournal of Learning and Teaching
- School conferences and staff development events
- Toolkits, guides, electronic resources
- Reports
- Books
- Journal articles
- Slideshare…. Academia.edu… your blogs…
- … RADAR!
What’s in the Teaching collection?

- Audio feedback to learners during an online postgraduate module in evidence-based practice.
- Feedback from course tutors about student participation and work output from the online learning activities.
- Introductory lecture by Yerina Lavender on cancer care.
- Wikis in plain English: A short YouTube video introduction to wikis. It explains in a humorous way how a wiki can be used to co-ordinate a camping trip.

What’s not in the Teaching collection?

- Administrative documents such as minutes of meetings.
- Work in progress requiring very frequent changes (collaborative software like wikis may be more appropriate).
