World War II Fire Safety Propaganda Posters

This document contains scanned copies of seven different World War II fire safety propaganda posters currently kept at the FRS/BRE Fire Research Archives at The University of Edinburgh. These posters were design and first printed by the National Fire Protection Association (NFPA) in Boston, Massachusetts, between 1942 and 1944. These and other documents can be downloaded from the Edinburgh Research Archive (http://www.era.lib.ed.ac.uk/handle/1842/3879).
